

Freitag, 10.12.2021, Online Raum 11

		Workshop Old and new forms of multilingualism in rural regions	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop
09:00– 09:30		Johanna Mitterhofer/Maria Stopfner (Eurac Research): Introduction „Old and new forms of multilingualism in rural regions“
09:30– 10:00	Session 1	Monika Dannerer (Universität Innsbruck): “You need to have a feel for it” Examples of positioning towards forms of multilingualism in rural touristic regions
10:00– 10:30		Luana Franco Rocha (Sciences Po Paris): Old and new Minorities in South Tyrol: Language Policies from the Perspective of Migrants
10:30– 11:00	Kaffeepause
11:00– 12:00	Hauptvortrag
12:00– 14:00	Mittagspause

14:00– 14:30		Daniel Wutti (Pädagogische Hochschule Kärnten): Kärnten/Koroška – Sichtbare Zweisprachigkeit, unsichtbare Mehrsprachigkeit?
14:30– 15:00	Session 2	Sabrina Colombo/Marta Guarda (Eurac Research): Plurilingual education in rural regions: insights from South Tyrol
15:00– 15:30		Irina M. Cavaion (Science and Research Center Koper): The CoBLaLT method: a possible beneficial language teaching and learning strategy for peripheral contexts
15:30– 16:00	Kaffeepause
16:00– 16:30		Anna Ritter (Universität Regensburg): “I started to speak High German only at secondary school.” External and internal multilingualism in rural areas of Bavaria

16:30– 17:00	Session 3	Mattia Zeba (Eurac Research): Language attitudes in a rural context: the overlooked phenomenon of ‘rural linguistic diversity’
17:00– 17:30		Closing Discussion „Old and new forms of multilingualism in rural regions“						